Foreign nationals of Ethiopian origin shall be granted a special identification card. The procedure and eligibility requirements for the special identification card are specified under Proclamation No. 270/2002 and Regulation No. 101/2004. The identification card is issued with the aim of executing the rights, privileges and responsibilities of those foreign nationals of Ethiopian origin.

Who Issues the Identification Cards

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Immigration, Nationality and Vital Events Agency are tasked with the authority to issue the identification cards. MoFA will issue the identification cards through its embassies all over the world when the request comes outside of Ethiopia. When the request for the identification card is made in Ethiopia, the Agency shall be the authority to issue the identification cards.

Who is Eligible

A person who has been an Ethiopian national before acquiring a foreign nationality is eligible. Moreover, if the foreign national has at least one of his parents or grandparents or great grandparents who were an Ethiopian national, then he is eligible for the identification card. One exception here is that an Eritrean who forfeited Ethiopian nationality for Eritrean nationality is not eligible.

The spouse, who holds a foreign nationality but is married with a foreign national of Ethiopian origin is also eligible to apply for the identification card. Here spouses who are Eritrean nationals are accommodated.

Minors, who are children of holders of the foreign national Ethiopian origin identification card, are eligible to enjoy the rights and privileges granted to the foreign national of Ethiopian origin. The names of the minors shall be mentioned in their parent(s) identification card. This will enable the minors to enjoy the corresponding rights and privileges without a separate identification card. Nevertheless, the minor can request for a separate identification card from his parent(s). Considering the law on minors and the circumstances for the request, a separate identification card may be issued to the minor.
